

EFP-Database of experts in the field of Psychomotricity

Topic Special fields	Motopaedagogic: Children elementary school, aged 6 to 10 with difficulties in learning, behaviour, perception disorder, motion deficits Motogeragogic: work with ill and old, partly dement people, some bound to a wheelchair
First Name	Elisabeth
Last Name	Gstöttner
Contact address	Schottengasse 3 / 3 / 74; 1010 Wien
PC/Town	Wien	Country	Austria
phone number		mobil phone	0043 664 450 580 5
E-mail	e.gstoettner@gmail.com
homepage	www.motopaedagogik.org www.motogeragogik.org
Educational background	State college for education in Vienna (center of gravity gymnastics and english); 1985 teaching for elementary schools; diploma for Montessori Pedagogic(1997); training for motivation further instruction, additional skill; further qualification in Motopaedagogic (2000) and further qualification in Motogeragogic (2005); participation at numerous exercises for additional skill, for instance introduction in sensory integration in dialog, learning and motivation training according to Prof. Hanson; communication training (NLP), methodic and didactic of rhythmical learning and education, sensomotoric supposition for cognitive learning,...
Professional background	4 years teacher in elementary school, teaching in forms and as leisuretime-teacher; 2 years teacher for integration, since 14 years support and motivation teacher, instructing in Viennese elementary schools, especially psychomotrican working with children with abnormal behaviour, perception disorder, learning complications, motoric and lingual difficulties Psychomotric work: Own group for children with different developing problems; Teaching at the paedagogic institute Vienna; Giving presentations, workshops, lecturing at conferences a.s.o. Own group in residences for old people (station for dement people);

European Forum of Psychomotricity

	private group for seniors; lecturer at various sessions, presentations to introduce psychomotoric; workshops
Publication/s	Journal of the Austrian State association for Legasthenie; several publications in school-journals; articles in the journal of the Austrian Association for Psychomotricity (akmö)
Teaching language/s	German / English